

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

«ARO» – «Annali.Recensioni.Online»

Length	Reviews should not exceed a maximum of 8,000 characters (including spaces). Only those reviews that are part of the thematic Forum may arrive at a length of up to 12,000 characters (including spaces).
Format	Please compose the review in roman type. Titles of works of art, music, or literature as well as foreign words and phrases should be set in italics. For quotations use double angle quotation marks («...»). Use three dots to indicate ellipsis in quotations: [...]
References	Any bibliographic notes must be added using the "Footnote" feature in the word processing program you are using. • First name (in full) and surname. In the case of multiple authors, they are separated by a comma (up to three; for more than three, the full name of the first author is followed by et al.). • Title and subtitle in italics, for both a volume and an essay contained in a volume (English titles must use title case according to the Chicago Manual of Style). • For volumes, the edition statement is "Place, Publisher, Year"; in the case of multiple places and/or multiple publishers, separate the indications with a short hyphen without spaces
Example of citations
Monographs	Stefan Laffin, Unter alliierter Besatzung. Das lange Ende des Krieges in Süditalien, 1943–1947 , Berlin-Boston, De Gruyter Oldenbourg, 2024, pp. 20-26.
Edited volumes	Giacomo Bonan, Katia Occhi (eds.), Environment and Infrastructure from the Early Modern Period to the Present. Challenges, Knowledge and Innovation , Berlin-Boston, De Gruyter Oldenbourg, 2023.

Essays in collective works	Tim Soens, Slow Infrastructures, Flood Protection and Extreme Weather Events. A Historical Perspective , in Giacomo Bonan, Katia Occhi (eds.), Environment and Infrastructure from the Early Modern Period to the Present. Challenges, Knowledge and Innovation , Berlin-Boston, De Gruyter Oldenbourg, 2023, pp. 163-181.
Papers in journals, newspapers and periodicals	Nicolas Jacob-Rousseau, The Large Log-Driving Lock. From Technical Diffusion to Ecological Trajectories in Europe's Watercourses (Sixteenth to Twentieth Centuries) , in «Annali dell'Istituto storico italo-germanico in Trento», 51/1, 2025, pp. 15-47.
